Designed as a cozy weekend retreat in the woods, the Cabin on Jackson Lane is surrounded by lovely gardens, mountain laurel and grand old oaks. It is completely private, easy living and a welcome oasis from hectic city living.

The 3 bedroom, 3 bath Hearthstone log cabin was built in 1990. It marries modern conveniences and energy efficiencies with the warmth and charm of an old log cabin. Rustic beams, paneled ceilings, wood floors and exposed log walls all evoke a sense of casual country living. The cabin has been well maintained and is in excellent condition. With a wide front porch, expansive rear deck and landscaped lawns, the cabin has great outdoor living areas. The rear deck is particularly nice as it feels like you are sitting in the treetops.

The house is entirely private on 8.3 acres with no other houses in sight. Approximately one acre of cleared land surrounds the house with peonies, mountain laurels and plantings. Jackson Lane is a private, quiet and lightly traveled entrance into the property off of 522 for easy access.
